After Corrie Ten Boom became a best-selling author and a popular speaker, someone asked her if it was hard for her stay humble. She said, "When Jesus rode into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday on the back of a donkey and everyone was waving palm branches, throwing garments onto the road and singing praises, do you think that for one moment it ever entered the head of that donkey that any of that was for him? If I can be the donkey on which Jesus Christ rides in his glory, I give Him all the praise and all the honor." When Jesus rode into Jerusalem there were some very different responses, and we still offer Him the same types today. The disciples began to praise God for all they had seen. That's one option—to bow before Him and offer Him the praise and the worship He deserves from you. But while disciples found reason to praise, the Pharisees found fault. Maybe they didn't believe Him, were too proud to submit to Him, or were more worried about what the Romans thought than what Jesus thought. Whatever the reason, they refused to accept Him as their king. The donkey, of course, did his part to be used by Jesus, drawing no attention to himself for good or bad. This Palm Sunday, consider your own response and follow the right examples!

After looking across all of Romans 3 last Sunday, this week we'll come back to verses 21 – 31, where Paul explains how we can be rescued in Jesus Christ. During Easter week we'll focus on what Jesus did to save us, and this passage sets the stage by telling us what it means to be saved. On Sunday night in Mark 5: 1 – 20, we'll consider the forces in our lives at work trying to control and influence us, and why we should choose carefully which one we'll yield to. Join us, and be ready to meet the Lord and hear from Him!

Church Library Resource of the Week

Did you know that the Church Library is loaded with helpful commentaries on every book of the Bible? Deepen your Bible study; find help for those passages you've always wondered about! Just one example is Gene Green's commentary on I & II Thessalonians, which has fast become a standard reference. Dr. Green provides helpful background information on the church in Thessalonica and then guides us through the text as Paul thanks the new believers for their steadfastness amid suffering, encourages them in their trials, urges them not to neglect their daily work, and teaches them about the future of believers who die before Christ returns. Find this at 227.81077, and much more in the Library!
