Once during a time of drought, a king discovered that the moat around his castle had gone dry. So, he threw a party and invited the people of the land; his only request was that they bring however much water they were each willing to dump in the moat. People came from far and wide. Some brought barrels of water, some brought a spoonful. At the end of the party, the king threw open the vault and announced they could each help themselves to his riches—the jewels, gold, and wealth. The only catch was that they could only carry away what would fit in the container they had used to bring water. Jesus is ready to fill your life with His presence, His power and riches, and you're the one who loses when you're only willing to follow Him if you don't have to go too far or to too much trouble to do it. It's been said that we sing, "I Surrender All," when what we seem to mean is "I Surrender Some," "Oh, How I Love Jesus" when we mean "Oh, How I Like Jesus," and "I'll go with Him, with Him, all the way," when apparently we mean "part of the way." In the Gospels, Jesus turns away people who offer to follow Him on their conditions, or with exclusions and exceptions. Accept His invitation, bring Him all you are and all you have, and you'll get back far more than you brought.

This Sunday in morning worship we'll return to Romans. In Chapter 7, verses 7 – 12, the Lord uses Paul to tell us not to make the mistake of thinking the Christian life is living by the law—just following a list of "do's" and a longer list of "don'ts." That makes for a dry, dull, joyless life, and not what the Christian life is all about. On Sunday night we'll turn to Mark 7: 31 – 37, a passage that shows us the compassion that we can find in Christ, and the compassion we should show people around us as we follow Him. There's a seat here for you!

Bro. Dean

The Nominating Committee is now at work, prayerfully filling positions of service for the new church year which begins in September. If you are currently serving in a class or on a committee, please pray about whether the Lord would have you to reenlist. Or, if you feel led to a new ministry or place of service, let us know! Committee members are Jason Melton, Carolyn Schwartz, Judy Jacobs, Marna Higgins, Jeannette Todd, and Sandy Bogle.

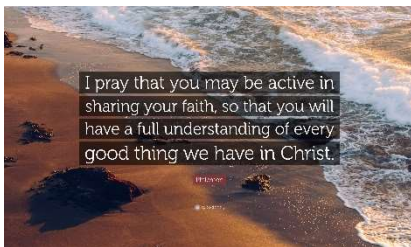

*This Week:
Pray for our group of twelve—ten youth and two adults—at Centrifuge Camp at Union University in Jackson.
They return Saturday.*

Church Library Resource of the Week

Here are hymnwriter Fanny Crosby's memories of eighty years! Told in her own words, this is her story of a life marked by great spiritual depth and profuse creativity. Though blind since infancy, she overcame great prejudice to become a beloved and respected poet and teacher. She lived a remarkable life and her passion for God infused her hymn lyrics with evangelistic zeal that points people to a loving and welcoming Lord. It's available in the Church Library!

Sunday, June 19:

3T Nursery: Lindsay Robinson, Faith Rush

Children's Message: Rhett Brewer

Deacon of the Week: Bill Sharp
