When I was a preschooler, my bedtime was 8:00. (I'm almost back to that point now!) One night, for some reason, I was allowed to stay up to the unheard-of-hour of 10:00. My parents and I were watching TV when I suddenly sat up and announced to my dad in his recliner, "You said we'd walk the dog today!" He looked at me a minute, then said, "You're right. Get your clothes on." So, one of my favorite early memories is walking the dog with my dad, at the wee hour of 10 PM, along a path between the woods and a cornfield that no longer exists. Looking back, I think my dad wanted me to know that it's important to keep your promises. Even if it's late and you're half-asleep in your underwear in the recliner, you need to keep your promises. He also wanted me to know that I could trust him to keep his promises. That helped prepare me for the day when I would come to know my Heavenly Father, who always keeps His promises. At the end of his life, Joshua reminds Israel what countless others have experienced, that "of all the good things which the Lord your God spoke concerning you... all have come to pass for you; not one word of them has failed." Keep your promises, and know that you can trust God to keep His. Now—is it bedtime yet?

This Sunday morning we'll thank the Lord for our nation, and then in Ezra 5 be reminded that even when circumstances seem to suggest otherwise, God is most definitely in control. He was then with Israel, He has been all along, and He still is today! There will not be a service or activities this Sunday evening. Read Ezra 5 ahead of time, and be here Sunday morning ready to worship!

--AWANA UPDATE--

We are all looking forward to the return of AWANA this fall, Sunday evenings from 5:30 – 7:00!

In order for that to happen, we need volunteers. At the moment, we especially need teachers in Sparks (K through 2nd grade) and in T & T (Truth and Training, grades 3 – 6).

Please pray, and if the Lord leads and you're the answer to those prayers, see Lydia Womack.

Pray for Our High School Students at Centrifuge This Week!

Katie Hare, Lakelyn Kilpatrick, Elysha Danielson, Brady Bryson, Kole Higgins, and Thomas McGee, with chaperones Bro. Tony and Katie McGee, left Monday morning for camp at Union University. They will return this Saturday. Pray for a safe travels and a life-changing week!

Opportunities to Serve!

The Nominating Committee is beginning work on filling various places of service for the new church year, which begins September 1. Pray for the committee, and pray about your place of service in the church!

OCC Collection for July

In July we will collect school supplies (pencils, crayons, markers, small notebooks and coloring books, rulers, erasers, ink pens) and combs and hairbrushes. Items can be left on the table at the back entrance.

They're Ba-ack - the Choir Returns!

Choir Rehearsal will resume Wednesday, July 21. The Choir will fill the loft during worship the following Sunday, July 25, and aim to provide the Message in Music on Sunday, August 1. Come be a part - there's a chair for you!

Memory Verse

"For I know that my Redeemer lives, And He shall stand at last on the earth;"
Job 19: 25

Church Library Resource of the Week!

Most Saturdays for 15 years, Don Wilton, Billy Graham's friend and pastor, drove the long road to meet with Billy at his home in Montreat, North Carolina. There the two spent hours talking about family, politics, sports, and their spiritual lives. In Saturdays with Billy, Don shares stories of those times, illuminating the qualities in Billy's character that were true to the end, revealing the heart of the man whose light still shines. Billy's words changed Don's life, and they have the power to change ours--a testament to a man who leaned on God's grace into eternity. It's in the Church Library—200 WIL!
